my own. They all mean so much to me. But, like the beginning of a relationship, you sometimes feel alone on the other side of the world. I knew that this Valentine’s Day, for my mother and I, a visit to Mom’s new home would be a good place to start. Before I knew it, mother, brother, sister, and I were standing in front of my mother's new home in the New York suburbs. The catfish house that my mother built is filled with her love. Flowers, a white piano, and a soft pink bedspread on a pink comforter. The living room, with its big, full-length window overlooking the backyard and a few brick chimneys, is a display of her best talent. A wicker and glass cabinet is filled with paintings, prints, and photographs of her happy days as a young girl growing up in Mississippi. Her artwork continues to amaze me. She is a true artist. When she gets down on the ground to paint, she gets very serious. Her hands are agile and focused. Her paintbrush moves in tight, even circles. Her watercolors are magical. Her artistic personality can be seen in all the details. Nothing is overlooked. There are white, thread-like lines holding the outline of the flowers in the 0cc13bf012
